WADSWORTH

Wade, son of W. M. Hart, is ill of influenza at Chicago hospital. Mrs. Emma Weaver is recovering from her recent accident, when she sustained a broken hip in falling down a flight of steps at her home. Rollie Richard, first Wadsworth boy to be mustered out, returned from Camp Sherman last week. Mrs. Carmen Seiberling is improving from her recent serious illness. Mrs. Mary Gordon Hopkins, 72, died Thursday morning, Dec. 5, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Wellener. Mrs. Hopkins was suddenly stricken with paralysis Sunday forenoon, previous to which time she had been in her usual good health. Funeral services were held from the Wellener home Thursday afternoon in charge of Rev. S. F. Ross of the Methodist church, and the remains were shipped to her former home in Baltimore, Md., accompanied by her son, Samuel. Besides the son and daughter, Mrs. Anna Wellener, the deceased is survived by one brother and three sisters. Mrs. Will Hoover, aged 58, died at her home on the Akron road Tuesday night, Dec. 3, after being ill but a few days with heart trouble. Mrs. Hoover was the mother of five children, Mrs. Blanche James, Mabel, Vernie, Leslie and Ray, who is with the American forces in France. Members of the family have been ill of influenza and owing to the serious condition of Vernie and Leslie, funeral services were held outside the residence Thursday afternoon and burial made in Woodlawn cemetery. Rev. E. G. Hamilton, of the Church of Christ, had charge of the services. Willard Geisinger, who has been seriously ill since Aug. 1 is reported as improving. Wadsworth township schools closed last Wednesday for an indefinite period on account of flu. The body of Elmer E. Hunsberger, whose death occurred at Durango, Mexico, on Nov. 10, reached Wadsworth on Monday of last week, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. W. B. Hunsberger and family of Cincinnati. The latter left for the Mexican border as soon as news of Elmer's death arrived and it required two weeks' time to secure the body and have it delivered at Laredo, Texas, a distance of 400 miles. Even then it was necessary to conduct negotiations through
